The Final Steps

The last lesson for the startup sign-up project focuses on styling the form.

Hey!

I've got a little trick up my sleeve.

This is the current state of the project 👇

Output
JavaScript
HTML
CSS (SCSS)

Ohans Emmanuel

I have worked with Startup X' product, and I think it is fabulous. I highly recommend the use of this product. It is simply a life saver.

What's Left to be Done?

As you can see, the project is pretty much done. Except for the signup form.

The form hasn't been styled.

And here comes the trick...

You're going to complete this project without my help.

Exercise

Oh, yes!

Use the playground above and try to complete the design.

If you get stuck, you know where to find me 😀

Go ahead, start coding!
